

Inspirations & Celebrations 8th Anniversary Giveaway

Special moments are always a reason to celebrate! Since today marks the 8th Anniversary of Inspirations & Celebrations, it's the perfect moment to say thank you for being a valued member of this wonderful community.

In thanks for your continued support, enthusiasm, and engagement, as the Creator and Lifestyle Editor behind I&C, I'm excited to announce the "Inspirations & Celebrations 8th Anniversary Giveaway".

A Thank You Note From The Gal Behind The Blog

In October 2011, the idea of starting a lifestyle blog came to me. I had no clue what I was getting into (or how much work it would be), but I knew I wanted to explore my creative side, so I jumped in and just start blogging.

At first, it was a simple vision of creating this positive, uplifting place on the web that would allow me to write about topics I love – from fashion and beauty to events, travel, and entertaining. Over time, this vision grew into a mission – the mission "to educate and empower women through inspiration and information".

Little did I realize that this journey would ultimately transform my life and take me places I had only dreamed of.

Throughout the highs and lows of life, running this blog has always been a source of inspiration for me. During the dark days of the recession, through challenging personal moments in my life, and even in times of hardship and fear, Inspirations & Celebrations always instilled a sense of higher purpose within me and kept me feeling inspired.

To be honest – at times, it was my refuge from the world, my way of escaping reality by entering a space that was filled with positivity and possibilities. At other times, it represented an opportunity for me to overcome my fears, believe in myself, and fulfill my potential.

To some, it might be just another lifestyle blog. To me, it's truly been life-changing.

Through my commitment to this website and social community, over the past 8 years, I'm proud to have helped hundreds of thousands of women by inspiring them to dream bigger, become happier, and create a life they love.

From style guides and beauty tips to entertaining tutorials, travel guides (and more), I'm passionate about creating content that adds value to your life. My goal is to help make your life easier, happier, and more inspiring.

When I read your comments and get to know you through social media, it touches my heart to learn that I&C is a source of joy for you too. Your enthusiasm and feedback fuel my desire to keep creating content that you enjoy.

So thank you for being a loyal I&C reader and for spreading the word about Inspirations & Celebrations.
